Sentry Logistic Solutions Announces Formation of Advisory Board

Industry experts offer strategic counsel to help position Sentry for growth

INDIANAPOLIS (March 30, 2006) – Sentry Logistic Solutions today announced the formation of its advisory board and the selection of the first four members. As recognized leaders in pharmaceutical manufacturing and global business, these individuals provide Sentry with counsel in the areas of long-term planning, capital investments, partnerships, service offerings, delivery models, sales and marketing initiatives and operational protocol.

“Sentry’s advisory board enhances our executive team by bringing an outside perspective that will ensure the company remains competitive in the global biopharmaceutical marketplace,” Jennifer M. Marcum, chief executive officer of Sentry said. “As Sentry grows, we will rely even more on this well-rounded, highly-experienced group of advisors for strategic guidance and objectivity. The professionals we selected are industry veterans and are incredibly talented, committed individuals with a passion for Sentry’s success. I am confident they will be significant contributors to the company’s future.”

The advisory board members provide Sentry with strategic input on disciplines relevant to the company’s business such as quality assurance, validation and manufacturing. They leverage their relationships in the national and global marketplaces to connect Sentry with potential partners, customers and business opportunities. The board first met in January 2006 and will continue to convene quarterly to discuss market trends and opportunities, Sentry’s financial growth plans and new business development strategies.

Sentry’s initial board members are:

Robert E. Chew, P.E., Vice President, Commissioning Agents, Inc. – Indianapolis, Indiana

Mr. Chew has more than 15 years of experience in pharmaceutical and biotechnology development with a focus on commissioning, qualification, validation and project management. His expertise and knowledge of quality processes helps ensure that Sentry’s services, processes and cold storage facility comply with industry regulations and meet the needs of clients worldwide.

Melanie W. Hart, President, Tsuchiya North America (TASUS Corporation, Craft Originators Inc.) –
Bloomington, Indiana

With 20 years of global manufacturing and executive management experience, Ms. Hart brings broad business expertise to Sentry Logistic Solutions' advisory board. She is an accomplished professional with a history of successfully positioning global companies for long-term growth. Ms. Hart's experience as the president of a large, diverse international manufacturing firm with four locations in three countries will help ensure Sentry's success in an increasingly competitive global market.

Donald Kouns, Director of Manufacturing and Packaging, Sentry Logistic Solutions – Indianapolis, Indiana

Mr. Kouns brings more than 45 years of leadership experience in biotechnology manufacturing, engineering and management to Sentry's advisory board, including 35 years at Eli Lilly and Company. Mr. Kouns is recognized throughout the industry as an expert in pharmaceutical product finishing, kitting and packaging. He provides strategic guidance to Sentry in the areas of cold storage operations, cold chain equipment validation and service offering implementation.

Michael P. Silvon, PhD, Vice President of Corporate Planning & Development, Bioanalytical Systems,
Inc. (BAS) – West Lafayette, Indiana

With more than 20 years of corporate planning and development expertise in the pharmaceutical and chemical manufacturing industries, Dr. Silvon is an invaluable asset to Sentry. His practical knowledge of fiscal positioning and acquisition strategies make him uniquely qualified to recommend growth strategies and financial tactics to help ensure Sentry's long-term viability.
